Loan No.: [REDACTED]

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please consider this letter to constitute a Notice of Error under 12 CFR Section 1024.35 of Regulation X of the Mortgage Servicing Act under RESPA, which Regulation became effective on January 10, 2014. These amendments implemented the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act provisions regarding mortgage loan servicing. Under these amendments, you must acknowledge receipt of this Notice within five (5) days thereof (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays and Sundays) and must advise me of your responses to this notice within thirty (30) days of receipt thereof (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays and Sundays).

The written authority of the client to my law firm for this Request is attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

Under Section 1024.35(b) of Amended Regulation X, the term "error" means the following categories of covered errors:

- (1) Failure to accept a payment that conforms to the servicer's written requirements for the borrower to follow in making payments.
- (2) Failure to apply an accepted payment to principal, interest, escrow, or other charges under the terms of the mortgage loan and applicable law.
- (3) Failure to credit a payment to a borrower's mortgage loan account as of the date of receipt, in violation of the prompt crediting provisions in 12 CFR 1026.36(c)(1).
- (4) Failure to pay taxes, insurance premiums, or other charges, including charges that the consumer has voluntarily agreed that the servicer should collect and pay, in a timely manner as required by the escrow provisions of § 1024.34(a), or to refund an escrow account balance as required by § 1024.34(b).
- (5) Imposition of a fee or charge that the servicer lacks a reasonable basis to impose upon the consumer, which includes, for example, a late fee for a payment that was not late, a charge you imposed for a service that was not provided, a default property-management fee for consumers who are not in a delinquency status that would justify the charge, or a charge for force-placed insurance provisions.

(6) Failure to provide an accurate payoff balance amount upon a borrower's request pursuant to 12 CFR 1026.36(c)(3).

(7) Failure to provide accurate information to a borrower for loss mitigation options and foreclosure, as required by the early intervention provisions of § 1024.39.

(8) Failure to accurately and timely transfer information relating to the servicing of a borrower's mortgage loan account to a transferee servicer.

(9) Making the first notice or filing required by applicable law for any judicial or non-judicial foreclosure process in violation of the loss mitigation procedures of § 1024.41(f) or (j).

(10) Moving for foreclosure judgment or order of sale, or conducting a foreclosure sale in violation of the loss mitigation procedures of this rule § 1024.41(g) or (j).

(11) Any other error relating to the servicing of the consumer's mortgage loan. Please note "servicing" is defined in § 1024.2(b).

The consumer in this case believes that you have committed an error by refusing to respond to a Notice of Error within thirty business days of receipt. This Notice of Error identified the following error:

The consumer in this case believes that you have committed error not responding to a Request for Information dated October 26, 2017 and received by you on November 6, 2017. This Request for Information requested the following information:

The consumer requests that you provide the consumer the entire mortgage loan servicing file including all servicing notes, collection notes, recordings of all phone calls you or any agent acting on your behalf made to the consumer or to the consumer's attorney, and any calls from the consumer or the consumer's attorney to you or an agent which you recorded and all loss mitigation documents sent to you by the consumer and all loss mitigation responses sent from you to the consumer from the time that you obtained servicing rights to the present.

In your November 15, 2017 response, you stated:

We've determined the items you requested are considered to be confidential, privileged and/or proprietary information of Wells Fargo. For this reason, we're unable to provide the documents requested.

The consumer in this case believes that you have committed error by refusing to respond to a Request for Information seeking this information regarding this information. Your contention that this request would not be provided because they are considered to be privileged, confidential and/or proprietary information of Wells Fargo is your standard generic response, which you regularly use, which is not specifically designed to respond to the particular request contained in the October 26, 2017 Request for Information.

The consumer has not received the entire loan servicing file, which is readily accessible on your electronic system of record. The consumer is entitled to this information.

You received this Notice of Error on June 22, 2018. You mailed the consumer a letter dated July 20, 2018 in which you stated:

We received an inquiry in our office, however the account is in active litigation. Here is the litigation information for your reference. . .

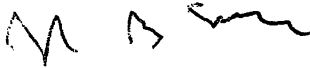

We won't be providing a response to your inquiry because the issues raised are the same or very closely related to the issues in the pending litigation.

The Request for Information was submitted to you by letter dated October 26, 2017, which was prior to any litigation. The Notice of Error was not an inquiry. Your generic response is the same response you provide to any Notices of Error or Requests for Information when there is pending litigation. However there is no litigation exception which exempts you from responding to Requests for Information or Notices of Error, when there is pending litigation.

Please correct all of these errors and provide me with notification of the correction, the date of the correction, and contact information for further assistance; or after conducting a reasonable investigation and providing the borrower through my firm with a notification that includes a statement that the servicer has determined that no error occurred, a statement of the reason or reasons for this determination, a statement of the borrower's right to request documents relied upon by the servicer in reaching its determination, information regarding how the borrower can request such documents, and contact information for further assistance.

Please be advised that for 60 days after receipt of a Notice of Error, you may not furnish adverse information to any consumer reporting agency regarding any payment that is the subject of the Notice of Error pursuant to § 1024.35(i).

Sincerely,

Subject: Resolution to your inquiry about Dianne L. Fitch, account number [REDACTED]

Dear John B. Ennis:

We received an inquiry in our office, however, the account is in active litigation. Here is the litigation information for your reference:

- Court: District Court for Rhode Island
- County: N/A
- Case Number: 1:18-cv-00214-JJM-PAS
- Date of Filing: April 19, 2018
- Case Name: : Kenneth Fitch Estate of Diane L. Fitch v. Federal Housing Financing Agency, Federal National Mortgage Association, Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Harmon Law Offices, PC

We won't be providing a response to your inquiry because the issues raised are the same or very closely related to the issues raised in the pending litigation. We've forwarded your inquiry to our litigation counsel to review during the pending litigation.

Going forward

We value your feedback and appreciate the time and effort you took to contact us. It's been my goal to fully address the concerns you've brought to our attention.

If you have any questions, I'm here to help. You may reach me at 1-800-853-8516, extension 1335721072. I am available to assist you Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Central Time. If you require immediate assistance and I am unavailable, other representatives are available to assist you at 1-800-853-8516, Monday through Friday, 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Central Time.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please consider this letter to constitute a Notice of Error under 12 CFR Section 1024.35 of Regulation X of the Mortgage Servicing Act under RESPA, which Regulation became effective on January 10, 2014. These amendments implemented the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act provisions regarding mortgage loan servicing. Under these amendments, you must acknowledge receipt of this Notice within five (5) days thereof (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays and Sundays) and must advise me of your responses to this notice within thirty (30) days of receipt thereof (excluding legal public holidays, Saturdays and Sundays).

The written authority of the client to my law firm for this Request is attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference.

Under Section 1024.35(b) of Amended Regulation X, the term "error" means the following categories of covered errors:

- (1) Failure to accept a payment that conforms to the servicer's written requirements for the borrower to follow in making payments.
- (2) Failure to apply an accepted payment to principal, interest, escrow, or other charges under the terms of the mortgage loan and applicable law.
- (3) Failure to credit a payment to a borrower's mortgage loan account as of the date of receipt, in violation of the prompt crediting provisions in 12 CFR 1026.36(c)(1).
- (4) Failure to pay taxes, insurance premiums, or other charges, including charges that the consumer has voluntarily agreed that the servicer should collect and pay, in a timely manner as required by the escrow provisions of § 1024.34(a), or to refund an escrow account balance as required by § 1024.34(b).
- (5) Imposition of a fee or charge that the servicer lacks a reasonable basis to impose upon the consumer, which includes, for example, a late fee for a payment that was not late, a charge you imposed for a service that was not provided, a default property-management fee for consumers who are not in a delinquency status that would justify the charge, or a charge for force-placed insurance provisions.

(6) Failure to provide an accurate payoff balance amount upon a borrower's request pursuant to 12 CFR 1026.36(c)(3).

(7) Failure to provide accurate information to a borrower for loss mitigation options and foreclosure, as required by the early intervention provisions of § 1024.39.

(8) Failure to accurately and timely transfer information relating to the servicing of a borrower's mortgage loan account to a transferee servicer.

(9) Making the first notice or filing required by applicable law for any judicial or non-judicial foreclosure process in violation of the loss mitigation procedures of § 1024.41(f) or (j).

(10) Moving for foreclosure judgment or order of sale, or conducting a foreclosure sale in violation of the loss mitigation procedures of this rule § 1024.41(g) or (j).

(11) Any other error relating to the servicing of the consumer's mortgage loan. Please note "servicing" is defined in § 1024.2(b).

The consumer in this case believes that you have committed error not responding to a Request for Information dated October 26, 2017 and received by you on November 6, 2017. This Request for Information requested the following information:

The consumer requests that you provide the consumer the entire mortgage loan servicing file including all servicing notes, collection notes, recordings of all phone calls you or any agent acting on your behalf made to the consumer or to the consumer's attorney, and any calls from the consumer or the consumer's attorney to you or an agent which you recorded and all loss mitigation documents sent to you by the consumer and all loss mitigation responses sent from you to the consumer from the time that you obtained servicing rights to the present.

In your November 15, 2017 response, you stated:

We've determined the items you requested are considered to be confidential, privileged and/or proprietary information of Wells Fargo. For this reason, we're unable to provide the documents requested.

The consumer in this case believes that you have committed error by refusing to respond to a Request for Information seeking this information regarding this information. Your contention that this request would not be provided because they are considered to be privileged, confidential and/or proprietary information of Wells Fargo is your standard generic response, which you regularly use, which is not specifically designed to respond to the particular request contained in the October 26, 2017 Request for Information.

The consumer has not received the entire loan servicing file, which is readily accessible on your electronic system of record. The consumer is entitled to this information.

Please correct all of these errors and provide me with notification of the correction, the date of the correction, and contact information for further assistance; or after conducting a reasonable investigation and providing the borrower through my firm with a notification that includes a statement that the servicer has determined that no error occurred, a statement of the reason or reasons for this determination, a statement of the borrower's right to request documents relied upon by the servicer in reaching its determination, information regarding how the borrower can request such documents, and contact information for further assistance.

Please be advised that for 60 days after receipt of a Notice of Error, you may not furnish adverse information to any consumer reporting agency regarding any payment that is the subject of the Notice of Error pursuant to § 1024.35(i).
